Award Of Sewer Contracts Voted By Authority

IN A COMBINED meeting last night, East Stroudsburg Borough Council and the Municipal Authority approved resolutions and ordinances pertaining to the construction of the proposed sewer system.

The council approved the resolution for a lease-back arrangement with the authority for the payment of the system, and also gave approval for the transfer of two and one-half acres of land for the construction of the sewage disposal plant.

An ordinance giving the schedule of sewer charges for the system was also approved. The charges show: a $3 per front foot assessment, connection fee of $150, and rentals set at a minimum of $15 per quarter for each separate dwelling, apartment, shop, store or other business establishment.

Garbage Charge
In addition, the ordinance showed the annual charge for each domestic garbage disposal unit will be $15 to be paid in quarterly installments.

The Authority then authorized the engineering firm of Albright and Friel to let contracts for the construction of the system.

The date for the start of construction will be determined by the date of the transferral of funds from the sale of the bond issue.

The House gave the measure the final legislative touch, voting 111-60 to agree to Senate changes.

The measure passed the Senate 28-22 Tuesday night. It passed the House several months ago.

Local Option

The Senate changes limited local option referenda on legalizing harness race betting to primary elections. The change was designed to meet objections of Gov. Lawrence to the House-passed version of the bill, allowing referenda at any election.

The bill puts a 5 per cent state tax on all money bet. It also places a 5 per cent admission charge on tickets.

Under the legislation a three-member nonsalaried State Harness Racing Commission would be created within the Agriculture Department. It would have general jurisdiction over all pari-mutuel harness racing activities.

Referenda would be on a county-wide basis.

Machine Operation

Up to four corporations would be permitted to handle the pari-mutuel machines.

Seventy-five per cent of the revenue — after all expenses — would go into the state's General Fund. The remaining funds would be distributed to county fairs and county harness racing groups for distribution as prize money.

Sunday Liquor Sales — The House refused to agree to Senate changes in a bill allowing sale of liquor in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh hotels between 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. Sunday.

The House approved a version which would have allowed a referendum on the question at primary elections in odd-numbered years.

The Senate changed the measure to put the referendum at the municipal elections in odd-numbered years. Gov. Lawrence indicated he would kill the bill if it allowed a referendum at anything other than a primary.

Nominations — The Senate unanimously confirmed the reappointments of Daniel B. Swaney, Uniontown, to his $14,000-a-year post on the Liquor Control Board and Hugo J. Parente, Monessen, to his $11,000-a-year position on the State Workmen's Compensation Board.

Roger Touhy Slain On Chicago Street

CHICAGO (AP) — Roger (The Terrible) Touhy, paroled prohibition era gangster, was ambushed and killed on a West Side street Wednesday night by a shotgun assassin.

Touhy's companion, retired police Sgt. Walter Miller, who was a principal defense witness at Touhy's trial, was critically wounded.

The pair was gunned from behind by five shotgun blasts as they were entering Miller's home. They had spent part of the night discussing a newly published book about Touhy's life and were returning home when they were shot.

The assailant or assailants were secreted behind a hedge leading from the sidewalk to the Miller home.

Touhy slumped to the ground. Miller, who is authorized to carry a pistol, wheeled and poured out five shots before he fell.

Touhy has been living at the home of his sister, Ethel Alesia, since he was paroled from Stateville Penitentiary last Nov. 24.

Touhy, 61, served nearly 26 years in prison for the kidnapping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor, one-time confidence man.

Touhy originally was sent to prison for 99 years for the kidnapping and received another 199-year sentence for his part in a sensational 1942 break from Stateville.

His parole resulted from clemency action by Gov. William G. Stratton.

Crop Harvest Equals 1958 Record High

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harvest reports Wednesday bore out government forecasts that crop production this year would match the record set last year.

In its final production survey of the year, the Agriculture Department said the index of crop output was 118 per cent of the 1947-49 base average, the same as last year.

See Editorial, Page Four

Last year's production surpassed the previous high-set in 1948 and matched in 1956 and 1957 — by nearly 11 per cent.

Add To Surplus

The 1959 production will meet all anticipated needs and add to surplus supplies, particularly grains.

This year's harvested acreage was estimated at 325 million acres, slightly higher than the past three years.

The department said the crop season was well above average for the nation as a whole in spite of serious difficulties in some sections.

Production this year was featured by a corn crop 15 per cent larger than last year's record.

Seven New Cardinals Elevated

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII placed symbols of their rank on the heads and shoulders of seven new cardinals Wednesday. He indicated he would appoint more cardinals to the Sacred College, which now numbers 79 and is the largest in Roman Catholic Church history.

The Pope gave red, three-cornered birettas and short, violet capes to seven of the eight cardinals elevated Monday. They include Americans Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer and Alois Cardinal Muench. The eighth new cardinal, who was the Vatican's apostolic nuncio to France, received his biretta in Paris from French President Charles de Gaulle.

About 600 prelates, Vatican diplomats and friends of the cardinals watched the brief presentation ceremony in the Vatican Palace's Consistorial Hall.

Nike-Zeus Test Fails Third Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The army fired a test model of its Nike-Zeus missile Wednesday but the second stage failed.

The firing at the White Sands missile range in New Mexico was the third test of the huge missile, which is ultimately intended to be armed with a nuclear warhead and to intercept and destroy intercontinental ballistic missiles aimed at the United States.

Billboard Control Bill Falls In Senate, 21-19

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to prohibit billboards along federal interstate highways in Pennsylvania was defeated Wednesday night in the Senate, 21-19.

The House-passed bill failed to get the 26 votes necessary for Senate passage.

The measure, backed by Gov. David L. Lawrence would ban billboards within 660 feet of roads included in the interstate system. It was designed to qualify the state for a federal subsidy contingent on effective controls on roadside advertising.

Sen. Hugh McMenamin (D-Lackawanna) said the bill would not qualify Pennsylvania under the federal program.

He said 21 states had already rejected the federal proposal.

The lawmaker said the federal subsidy promised a little less than five million dollars over a period of 13 years and it was doubtful if money to pay the subsidy ever would be appropriated.

Sen. Charles R. Weiner, Democratic floor leader, said the proposal was the same as any kind of zoning law.

"The purpose is to set a public policy so our highways are not cluttered with signs instead of landscape," Weiner said.

"Property rights must always suffer where the welfare of the people is involved," he said. "Beautifying the community is more important than commercialization."

Thousands Of Motorists Remain Stranded In Snow In High Plains Of New Mexico

VAUGHN, N. M. (AP) — Thousands of motorists remained stranded Wednesday night in a 10,000-square-mile area of east central New Mexico buried by the dying fury of a stubborn storm.

No hardships or deaths were reported as railroads, still running into the area, took on the job of delivering food and supplies with police, National Guardsmen and armed forces volunteers in rescuing motorists trapped by the storm.

Snow was starting to clear over much of the area late and a drizzling rain replaced the snow in places.

This little high plains town of 1,400 was harboring some 600 stranded drivers and children. Five hundred fugitives from the storm were held up in Carrizozo, a town of 1,700 to the south.

Radio Free Europe Chief Claims Red Poisoning Plot

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — A report by Radio Free Europe Wednesday that Communist agents tried to poison all its employees created a mystery.

U.S. authorities, the Bavarian Ministry of Interior, the Justice Ministry, political and criminal police, and state security officials denied they had been informed of such an incident.

The European director of the American-financed private station, Erik Hazelhoff of Mount Kisco, N.Y., insisted he notified authorities after finding poison in some of the salt shakers in the station's cafeteria Nov. 21.

Death Doses

Furthermore, Hazelhoff said the contents of the salt shakers were examined by U.S. Army medical authorities and were found to contain lethal doses of a derivative from the deadly poisonous plant.

A spokesman for the U.S. Army's southern command at Munich disclaimed any Army participation.

Most of the 1,200 employees of the station are refugees from European Iron Curtain countries. There are about 100 American employees.

Radio Free Europe, an anti-Communist propaganda organization, operates from Munich under special permission from the West German government.

It broadcasts to all European countries behind the Iron Curtain except the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower's Stock Sinks With French

PARIS (AP) — France's 14 NATO allies argued in vain Wednesday that the French should agree to a unified NATO air defense system. The debate was part of a U.S.-led campaign for overall integration of Atlantic Alliance military forces.

Eisenhower is under attack among the higher echelons of the French administration, not so much as an individual but as head of a government that is sharply at odds with President Charles de Gaulle's policies.

Two controversial issues are creating at least a public impression of a U.S.-French crisis:

Too Proud

1. The United States dislikes the proud De Gaulle's attitude toward the Atlantic Alliance. His refusal to pool some of his French forces causes irritation. His resolve to lead France into the atomic weapons business at a time of delicate negotiations with the Soviet Union in Geneva on nuclear disarmament also raises U.S. misgivings.

2. For its part, France resents what officials consider to be inadequate U.S. support for De Gaulle's quest for an Algerian settlement. That U.S. abstention in last Saturday's United Nations vote on Algeria stunned Paris.

A highly confidential report from the French Embassy in Washington to the Foreign Ministry here underlined the situation.

Little Can Be Done

According to reliable information, the report asserted that not much can be done to resolve French-American differences while Eisenhower remains in the White House and his present policies prevail.

Some French complaints center around what officials say is Eisenhower's inability or unwillingness to get down to detailed technical negotiation on mutual problems.

Responsible French officials do not claim their government is blameless. Indeed one said that is one of the motivating factors behind virtual agreement by the Atlantic Council to patch up or resolve these problems.

However, nobody doubts that the Americans and French still are mad at each other.

Plain Speaking

Some plain speaking remains to be done in the next few days when Eisenhower and De Gaulle talk to each other alone.

Something approaching a crisis of confidence also seems to be building up between Paris and Washington.

The French fear that the Americans and British may be ready to negotiate some sort of new status for Berlin that would jeop. Berliners and weaken the Allied grip on the city.

Eisenhower also saw rocket-firing fighters from the accompanying aircraft carrier Essex put on a spectacular air show.

Wednesday morning a helicopter will whisk the President from the deck of the Des Moines direct to the palace grounds for his reception with Bourguiba.

"Having in mind that the President carried the torch of freedom on his tour, we are going to hand out 10,000 torches," McLaughlin said to a reporter. He said they will be

Oppose Proposed Huge Jet Airport

NEWARK, N. J.—Plans for a huge jet airport in Morris County's Great Swamp, 25 miles from New York City, are meeting with spirited opposition from officials representing nearby communities.

The Port of New York Authority recently announced preliminary plans for the airport. It would cover 10,000 acres, making it twice the size of New York International Airport.

The huge area would allow for large buffer zones to help protect nearby communities from jet noise and other intrusions.

Despite the buffer zones and a brochure filled with other selling points, opposition has been more vehement recently than when first reports of the project leaked out early this month.

It was apparent that without years of severe struggle the plan could not hope to get through the New Jersey and New York Legislatures.

Austin J. Tobin, the Port Authority's executive director, told a news conference that he had little hope of completing the project before 1968. He said it could not be ready before 1966 even if the "green light" were given now.

Tobin said that the two state Legislatures would not even be asked to consider the plan a bill until the 1961 sessions.

Before confirming the project, Tobin conducted a lengthy briefing for more than thirty New Jersey officials, headed by Gov. Robert B. Meyer. In the meantime, copies of the plan were on their way to every member of the New Jersey and New York Legislatures.

Arguments In Favor

The substance of Tobin's argument was:

By 1965, the three metropolitan airports now in operation—Idlewild, LaGuardia and Newark—would be "inadequate" to handle the rapidly expanding air traffic.

It would be "utterly impossible" for them to handle the predicted traffic of 1975 "even if technological improvements" brought some gains.

A fourth metropolitan airport, therefore, was "indispensable" if the New York-New Jersey area were to retain its position as the world's greatest center of trade and transportation.

Fifteen possible sites had been surveyed. The Great Swamp, which is just west of Chatham and is five miles south of Morristown, was the only one that met the criteria for such an airport.

These criteria included: The closeness of areas that would generate the expected traffic; the feasibility of fitting the posed site into existing air-traffic patterns, and protection of residents from intolerable aircraft noise.

Main Points Listed

These were the main points in Tobin's presentation. He minimized the prospect that helicopters would soon make it possible to locate an airport in a more remote region. He insisted that the plans had to be drawn on the basis of ground transportation from the city to the airport.

Some observers thought that Tobin underestimated the potential of helicopter travel.

Some observers also thought that it was a mistake to exclude the possibility that "city-center" aircraft might relieve some of the strain on existing airports.

A city-center craft is generally defined as one that could take off from a downtown strip, like a helicopter; that could move cross-country at speeds rivaling those of conventional airliners, and that could then land in a downtown section at its destination.

Perhaps the most striking argument presented by Tobin for the choice of the site in Morris County was the predicted population explosion in sections of the metropolitan area that have the poorest access to the airports now in use.

He cited a forecast by the Regional Plan Association that the total New York-New Jersey population would increase from 14,900,000 in the beginning of 1959 to 17,800,000 by 1975.

Of the 2,900,000, or 68

percent

would reside west of the Hudson River—in New Jersey, in Rockland County and Staten Island. These residents would need long periods of travel to and from Idlewild and LaGuardia Airports, which outrank Newark. The disadvantage has been accentuated with the coming of jet airliners. Jets are barred from Newark except when bad weather requires the division of flights from Idlewild.

Tobin emphasized to newsmen—and presumably to the New Jersey officials in the closed session—that the plan was only a preliminary one; that the study would be continued; that the Port Authority had an "open mind" on alternatives.

Benson Merits Support

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, now recuperating from an operation, gained considerable solace from Republican John Kyl's election to Congress from Iowa's Fourth District.

Mr. Kyl carried the endorsement of Secretary Benson's staunchest defender, President Eisenhower, into the campaign. The election was widely hailed as a test of the much-maligned secretary's farm program in the critical Midwest farm belt.

Edward Gilmour, who opposes the controversial Benson farm program, was Kyl's foe in Tuesday's special election.

The Republican candidate did not go son policies, calling instead for certain son policies, calling instead for certain improvements he felt would benefit the Midwestern farmer. His opposition, however, was mild compared with that of his Democratic rival, and the results of the voting are being hailed as at least a partial victory for Mr. Benson.

His real joy lies in the fact that Mr. Kyl's election comes at a time when a number of panicky Republican leaders are calling for the farm secretary's resignation "for the good of the party."

In view of what Mr. Benson is trying to accomplish for the good of the entire country, not just the Republican party, we'll venture the prediction that he will prove, in the long run, to be a much smarter and better politician than any of his critics.

The farm problem dates back many years. New Deal efforts to solve it through subsidies served only to magnify the problem and create new ones. Abuses of the price support provisions brought about crop surpluses which, in turn, forced the government to spend billions of dollars for grain - storage space.

After 25 years of farm subsidies, we still have the farm problem with us and no one, excepting the farmer with a huge acreage, has benefited. Surely, the person who owns a small farm and has seen his costs rise out of proportion to what he gets for his produce has not gained much, if anything.

Mr. Benson has faced up to a politics-conscious Congress in trying to push through a reform program he feels will serve the best interests of the farmer and the country. He has not succeeded too well, of course, but we feel he has made substantial progress against a snow-balling problem.

We think it is incumbent upon all members of Congress, especially those of his own party, to stand behind him in his efforts to bring sanity back to the farm economy.

George Sokolsky Says...

Presidential Excitement

Two contrary forces are at work on public opinion in this country at this moment. One is that there should be unity because the President is abroad and he needs the appearance if not the substance of total national support.

The other is that a great many things have happened during the past 20 or so years and are happening now which are impoverishing this nation during a period which gives the semblance of prosperity.

About much of this, the American people know very little. We have, for instance, been told that we are world leaders, that we have poured out huge sums, variously estimated as between $70,000,000,000 and $100,000,000,000 to take care of all the world.

And now we discover that much of our gold reserve has been "ear-marked" by other nations and that we have very little of it left for ourselves.

We discover that Great Britain, West Germany, Japan and other countries are attaining a prosperity heretofore unknown to them and at the same time, we are asked to put up $4,000,000 for foreign aid.

Prof. John K. Galbraith of Harvard, writing in "American Heritage," said:

"... The American government works far better — perhaps it only works — when the executive, the business power, and the press are in some degree at odds. Only then can we be sure that abuse or neglect, either private or public, will be given the notoriety it is needed."

Prof. Galbraith might also have included the labor unions which are now so important. As power corrupts, so does complacency and apathy.

In a free society, no public official, from the smallest clerk up to the head of the state, should ever feel comfortable that his judgment will not be questioned, his errors exposed and his cupidity made a matter of historical record.

This country developed when the people took an enormous interest in politics, when Presidents were abused and attacked and when the muckrakers dominated the press and shrieked and shouted against iniquities.

"Yellow Journalism" safeguarded America from political corruption and economic cupidity. It exposed crooks as well as hypocrites.

For example, the GOP bloc has gone along with the Lawrence Administration's billion-dollar-plus fiscal monster — cutting the budget to be sure but at the same time granting a decided increase over the allocations of the past biennium.

This has been the general theme of the GOP anti-administration legislative bloc during this the second longest legislative session of record.

On to 1960 with the important presidential elections in the offing, along with the local legislative run-offs, indications are that the new session will be a repeat performance of the current session — but with more emphasis on a "get tough" approach by legislative Republicans.

Next year's session does not bode well for the Lawrence Administration. This year's session generally has gone down on the record books as one of gentle and subtle reprisals — a rather calm, first year honeymoon affair for the new-in-office Democratic Administration.

PM Joint Schools Unit Recommends Accepting Evert Bid

Final Action On Proposal Set Dec. 30

TANNERSVILLE — The Joint Committee of the Pocono Mountain Joint Schools yesterday recommended the acceptance of the S. H. Evert Construction Co., Bloomsburg, with alternates for general construction for a cost of $1,430,300.

Total cost of the new building, ready for occupancy with all fixed and movable equipment, was set at $2,167,660.50.

Running down the list of alternates given in the Evert bid, the committee accepted for recommendations to the local school boards, the following:

Alternate 1 — for the installation of ceramic tile wainscoting throughout the corridors, was accepted.

Alternate 2 — for the installation of vinyl tile in the corridor floors instead of terrazzo tile, was defeated.

Alternates 3 and 4 — for the installation of acoustical tile in the rifle range, kitchen and cafeteria, were defeated.

Alternate 5 — for the installation of library equipment at a cost of $8,900, was accepted.

Alternates 6A and 6B — for the placing of backstop and stands in gymnasium at a cost of $7,750 and $2,750, respectively, was accepted.

Alternate 7 — for the installation of homemaking equipment exclusive of ranges and refrigerators, at a cost of $18,200, was accepted.

Alternate 8 — for the installation of Art Room equipment at a cost of $7,700, was accepted.

Alternate 9 — for the installation of Science equipment, at a cost of $40,500, was accepted.

Alternate 10 — for the installation of office equipment at a cost of $3,100, was accepted.

Alternate 11 — for the installation of Industrial Shop equipment at a cost of $39,000, was accepted.

Alternate 12 — for the installation of Ag. Shop equipment at a cost of $9,600, was accepted.

Alternate 13 — for the installation of kitchen equipment at a cost of $28,700, was accepted.

Alternate 14 — for the installation of chairs in the auditorium at a cost of $21,500, was accepted.

The heating and ventilating contract was awarded to the Joseph Rado Co., Berwick, for a bid of $177,800.

Of the three alternates in the contract, the first for the installation of pneumatic controls was accepted, the second for the installation of Trans controls was accepted and the third for the placing of covers over the units on walls was also recommended.

The plumbing and heating contract will be recommended by the committee for awarding to the United Engineering and Maintenance Co., Norristown, with no alternates.

The electrical contract will be recommended for awarding to the William A. Dommyer Co., Allentown, with only one alternate, and that is the placing of a wired system in the program system instead of an electronics system.

The committee rejected the bid of A. Newton Bugbee, Catawissa, for the installation of a sewage disposal system at a cost of $96,480.

It will be readvertised for bid, the committee reported.

All local boards will be asked

Ronson Aide Testifies At Trial

INFORMATION RECEIVED

by East Stroudsburg Police Chief Travis Seese has led police to charge two employees with larceny in connection with the theft of cigarette lighters from the Ronson Corp. plant in Delaware Water Gap.

Edward Ernest Huge, 27, of Scioti, posted $1,500 bail for a hearing Friday on the charge, while Dockhaven Johnson, 43, also of Scioti, was released under $500 bail after pleading guilty to the charge in a hearing yesterday before Justice of the Peace Marshall Neyhart.

Seese reported he had received information that Huge had lighters in his possession on Monday, and he was taken into custody with the material, it was alleged.

In addition, a warrant was obtained by State Trooper Donald Good, who went to the Huge home and reportedly found additional stolen goods there.

Huge, it was alleged, was taken into custody with about $711 in lighters on his person, and it was reported more than $500 more were found in his home.

Seese said Huge had set up a sale for the material and had gone into the contact's home with boxes and contact the man. It was at this point, Seese said, that Huge was taken into custody.

Special Air Program Set For Sunday

ON Radio Station WVPO, Stroudsburg, the "Our Lady's Hour" for Sunday, 9:30-10:00 a.m., will feature a special presentation entitled, "A Christmas Prayer to Mary".

Prepared by the Passionist Seminarians of St. Ann's Monastery, Scranton, the program is a novel approach to the Mystery of Christmas. It is arranged in the form of a meditation which thinks of how Mary would spend Christmas if she were to do the things we do. Mary goes to Midnight Mass, listens to our favorite Christmas carols, and shows us how to spend a very Merry Christmas.

Student Choir

The carols, sung by the Passionist Student Choir of St. Ann's Monastery, are placed within the meditation in the following order: Verbum Caro, a 12th Century Gregorian Chant; Silent Night, by F. Gruber (arr. by Nino Borucchia); O Little Town of Bethlehem, by Lewis H. Redner (arr. by Nino Borucchia); Angels We Have Heard on High, a French Noel (arr. by Nino Borucchia); Adeste Fideles, traditional (arr. by Leo P. Manzetti); Jesu, Redeemer Omnipotens, by Oreste Ravanello; and Emmanuel, by Rev. Carlo Rosini.

Firemen Answer False Alarm

STROUDSBURG firemen answered a telephoned false alarm at 6:10 p.m. yesterday.

Fire Chief Robert Phillips said a boy telephoned the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg Control Center to report a kitchen fire at 104 N. 10th St. There is no such address.

Firemen cruised several other streets on the theory that the boy might have been excited and his street address misunderstood, but could not find any blaze.

Bills Aiding Children Passed

HARRISBURG — Two bills guaranteeing protection for children in boarding houses was a leader in the local survey.

The Lehigh County legislators had little doubt Tuesday night that the bills will be signed by Gov. Lawrence.

Sponsored by Reps. Marian E. Markley (R) Samuel W. Frank (D), both of Lehigh County, they had been requested by the Lehigh County Community Council as a result of its child welfare survey two years ago.

State Sen. John T. Van Sant (R) backed up his Lehigh County colleagues of the House by speaking for the bills in the upper house. He reported that both bills were slightly amended by the Senate, but the changes in no way effect the original intent.

House Bill 1122 is an act relating to boarding houses for children, defining such boarding houses, and providing for their licensing and operation under rules and regulations established by the State Department of Welfare. It amends a 1947 act.

Children Of The Bible

Boy With Loaves And Fishes

Story About Unnamed Boy Illustrates Jesus' Power

"One of his disciples, Andrew, the son of Peter, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes... John 6:8-9

VERY OFTEN the Bible does not tell us the names of persons who, at some important moment in the unfolding of God's plan for men, had an important part to play.

This lad who had five barley loaves and two fishes was one of these. No doubt his mother had sent him with the food to the market place to sell it. Or it may have been intended for a group of relatives and friends who were coming to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover.

Jesus smiled at the lad, took the basket, and had His disciples bid the people sit down. "And when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would."

After the huge crowd had eaten their fill, Jesus asked the disciples to "gather up the fragments that remain." The remains of the meal filled twelve baskets!

The lad turned and raced toward home to tell his mother what had happened.

There Jesus stood on a green hilltop and spoke to them of the Truth, for which He had come into the world to bear witness.

Luzerne Man On Probation

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A Luzerne County industrialist charged with income tax evasion from 1952 to 1956 was placed on two years' probation in U.S. District Court yesterday.

In imposing sentence, Judge Frederick V. Pollmer noted that John Wilson, Truckville, had paid the government nearly a quarter of a million dollars in penalties and interest.

Wilson, president and owner of the Wilkes-Barre Iron and Wire Works, Inc., was accused in two indictments of evading payment of $186,913 in taxes.

In another case, Daniel H. Smith, 20, Pittston, was given an undetermined term under the Youth Correctional Act on a car theft charge. He was accused of stealing an automobile to come home from Camp Roberts in California.

Hospital Head Dies

After the huge crowd had eaten their fill, Jesus asked the disciples to "gather up the fragments that remain." The remains of the meal filled twelve baskets!

The master crossed the Sea of Galilee to the opposite shore. But the people, eager to hear more of His words, and hoping He would work some miracle, had themselves ferried across in boats.

There Jesus stood on a green hilltop and spoke to them of the Truth, for which He had come into the world to bear witness.

But on his way, the boy saw a huge crowd of people following a Man they called the Nazarene. Curious, and because he too was astounded by the beauty and light of the Man's eyes, the lad joined the multitude and followed Jesus.

What Young People Think

Shopping Spirit Strikes Home With Teeners

By Eugene Gilbert
President, Gilbert Youth
Research Co.

CHRISTMAS, the teenagers' favorite holiday, holds more excitement for the girls than for the boys.

We questioned 200 youngsters—100 girls and 100 boys—about their Christmas shopping plans. And it was the girls who were doing most of the planning.

In an early survey, teen-agers voted Christmas their favorite holiday. And in this one, three of every four said they enjoy Christmas shopping and gift-wrapping. But while the girls were almost unanimous, only one in every two boys said they get a kick out of these holiday chores.

We found that most youngsters—again more girls than boys—have been saving money to buy gifts. Most of the boys plan to get holiday jobs to finance their shopping trips.

Not many youngsters make gifts anymore. And some do not give to everyone in their families.

Girls Want Clothes!

Special clothing for Christmas is a must for about half the youngsters—out of every 10 girls, and 3 out of 10 boys.

Pat Pratt, 16, of Brooklyn, N.Y., one of the 90 girls who say they like Christmas shopping and gift wrapping, explains: "It gives me Christmas spirit."

"I like to find something which will please others and wrap it prettily," says 16-year-old Jane Manning of Clark's Summit, Pa.

Many of the youngsters say the fun in shopping is the thrill of giving, while the enjoyment of gift-wrapping is in doing something creative.

"I do odd jobs for my parents and baby sit," says 13-year-old Carol Bergman of Waverly, Pa.

They Save On Job

May Rascigno, 16, of Brooklyn, says she saves from her lunch money and allowance.

A surprising number of teenagers have regular part-time jobs. They simply use part of their savings for Christmas.

Most of the 43 percent who expect to get holiday jobs will work as salesmen or salesgirls. Some expect to pick up shopping money by helping with chores at home, baby sitting, and running errands. Several of the boys plan to work as delivery boys.

Mothers will get most of the gifts given by teenagers this Christmas, while fathers are a close second. Sisters outnumbered brothers as gift recipients 51 percent to 48. Only about one-fourth of the youngsters will give to uncles, aunts and cousins. Almost half will give gifts to friends, boys or girls.

Only 17 percent of the youngsters we queried—6 percent of the boys and 29 percent of the girls—make the gifts they give. Apparently the reason the girls outnumber the boys is their facility with knitting needles and embroidery wheels. But there are some truly unique ideas among the youngsters.

But when we asked 18-year-old John V. Clark of Brooklyn if he enjoys these chores, he said: "Are you kidding? I just enjoy the giving."

Joseph Cox, 14, of Flushing, N.Y., has found the age-old solution for boys who dislike shopping and wrapping. "I let my sister do it," he says.

The 75 percent of the youngsters who save money for Christmas rely on income from baby sitting, paper routes and their allowances.

Given Poetry

Bill Guest, 17, of Clark Summit, Pa., explains: "I compile books of the poetry I write which I give my friends." Carol Bergman paints pictures. Mary Doyle, 14, of Chicago, makes holders and cosmetic cases.

Sandy Aronson, 15, of Dalton, Pa., sums up the consensus of why youngsters make gifts this way: "It saves money and besides grandparents and parents seem to like them better."

The advantage of the home-made gift over the one bought in a store, says Carol Bergman, is that "it makes a closer love present when you make things yourself."

Bill Guest agrees. "I am giving part of myself," says Bill, "not a manufactured item."

The youngsters who buy clothing for Christmas usually get something to wear to parties and dances. But in many cases, Christmas represents the time when they improve their wardrobe. Buying clothing at Christmas is 17-year-old Vera Pratt of Philadelphia, "makes everything feel new."

Common Stock

By William A. Doyle
Q. It is my understanding that companies issue stock and sell that stock to the public in order to raise money for various purposes. Common stock seems to have no time limit on its existence.

do not receive dividends. When a company buys back some of its shares, the equity (percentage of ownership) in the company of all the other shares which remain outstanding naturally increases.

Now, preferred stocks may be redeemed from time to time. And bonds and other debt securities naturally have redemption features.

William A. Doyle

After all, when a company borrows money, that debt must be repaid sooner or later.

And manufacturing costs have absolutely no relation to how much common stock, preferred stock, bonds or any other kind of security a company has outstanding. It's pretty tough to figure out how you came up with that idea.

I know very little about stocks. But it seems to me that it would reduce manufacturing costs if a company could retire some of its common stocks, when profits make it possible. Can you enlighten me?

A. Look at it this way. If you buy common stock in a company, you become a part owner of that company. You stand to share in the company's profits, if the company does well. You also run the risk of seeing your investment drop in value, if the company doesn't do well.

How would you feel if the company's management had the right to redeem your stock? Should there be a time limit put on ownership?

In some cases, however, a company will buy back some of its stock on the open market. The shares repurchased become "treasury stock." The treasury shares might possibly be sold again, later on. But while they are held by the company they have no vote in the affairs of the company and

Wilkes-Barre To Receive Loan

HARRISBURG (AP)—Tentative approval of a $45,000 loan to the Committee of 100, Inc., Wilkes-Barre has been granted by the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority.

The project for which the loan was requested will cost an estimated $150,000.

Final approval of the PIDA second mortgage loan depends on other loans by Wilkes-Barre of $20,000 and by banks of the remaining $75,000.

Under the project, the Terry Footwear Corp. will form a real estate corporation that will purchase the premises of a building at S. Main St. in Wilkes-Barre now owned by the Committee of 100.

The PIDA gave tentative approval for the loan at its monthly meeting Tuesday.

Woman Stabbed, Husband Booked

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The wife of a South Philadelphia real estate and insurance broker was stabbed to death Wednesday in the kitchen of her apartment.

Dr. Marvin Aronson, deputy medical examiner, said the victim, Mrs. Rose Cusano, 39, was stabbed at least 25 times.

Her husband, Paschal Cusano, 42, was held on a homicide charge. Lt. Nicholas Arcaro, of the homicide squad said Cusano told him he "blacked out" during an argument with his wife and does not remember what happened.

Q. I bought some stock at $29 a share. Shortly after that, this stock was split two-for-one. So, I now own twice as many shares as I originally purchased. Am I supposed to report the stock I received as a result of this split when I file my Federal income tax return? If I sell some of this stock, how do I figure the cost of each share?

A. You don't have to report the split at all. When and if you sell the stock, you will be required to report the transaction in your income tax return.

Your "tax cost basis," as it is called, on each share of stock is now $14.50. That's really easy to figure.

Let's say you originally bought 100 shares at $29 a share. Your total cost was $2,900. As a result of the two-for-one split, you now own 200 shares. But your cost remains unchanged at $2,900. So, divide $2,900 by 200 and you have a cost of $14.50 a share.

Q. What do the letters "W.I." stand for when they appear after a stock in a listing of transactions on a securities' exchange?

A. That designation means "when issued," which is actually a short form for "when, as and if issued." Sometimes, stocks which have not yet been issued will be traded on this basis.

A. You don't have to report the split at all. When and if you sell the stock, you will be required to report the transaction in your income tax return.

Your "tax cost basis," as it is called, on each share of stock is now $14.50. That's really easy to figure.

Let's say you originally bought 100 shares at $29 a share. Your total cost was $2,900. As a result of the two-for-one split, you now own 200 shares. But your cost remains unchanged at $2,900. So, divide $2,900 by 200 and you have a cost of $14.50 a share.

Q. What do the letters "W.I." stand for when they appear after a stock in a listing of transactions on a securities' exchange?

A. That designation means "when issued," which is actually a short form for "when, as and if issued." Sometimes, stocks which have not yet been issued will be traded on this basis.

Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.

Q. I bought some stock at $29 a share. Shortly after that, this stock was split two-for-one. So, I now own twice as many shares as I originally purchased. Am I supposed to report the stock I received as a result of this split when I file my Federal income tax return? If I sell some of this stock, how do I figure the cost of each share?

Just Between Us —

—by Bobby Westbrook

In the topsy-turvy time schedule which I keep, I'm usually going the wrong way in this one-way street of a world geared to admit that it is never dull.

Most people, for instance, going to Philadelphia for a day, leave at 9 a.m. Not me. I leave at 9 p.m. as the only way I could figure out how to visit Nan's first graders and still be home in time to work on the next day's paper.

Quite a spectacular drive, it was with Wind Gap about the most spectacular with its star lights across the street and its star on the mountain. Bethlehem, after strangling itself with traffic in other years, seems to be taming down their lights and concentrating on the Belgian Congo.

One of the most startling of the Christmas apparitions, however, was to glance sideways and find a more-than-life-size camel breathing down my neck. Well, not really breathing, but it seemed that way in a display at one of those big cemeteries that line that road in suburban Philadelphia. It didn't seem half as big by daylight.

But it was a delightful trip, and I spent the morning in the classroom, enchanted with the children, awed by how much they knew and impressed with their decorations, consisting mainly of three-dimensional angels with curled-paper hair.

"I know children have unconventional ideas about angels," Nan confessed. "But you'll have to admit they have personality." They sure have.

So, even if it means I'll have to wash the windows by moonlight before putting up the Christmas wreaths, I'm glad I went. As a matter of fact, I can't remember regretting any of the gay and foolish things I've done, the sleep I've lost, or the work undone.

Contrariwise, "My candle burns at both ends; it will not last the night. But, oh my friends, and oh my friends, it makes a lovely light."

D of A Party

A Christmas social will follow a brief business meeting of the Daughters of America on Friday night at 8 at the Odd Fellows Hall. There will be an exchange of 50-cent gifts.

Warriors Dump Montclair, 19-11 To Stay Unbeaten

EAST Stroudsburg State Teachers College's wrestling team won its second straight match yesterday defeating Montclair, N. J., State Teachers College, 19 to 11.

Wins in the lower weight classes stood up for the Warriors, coached by Jim Reed, as they dropped the 177-pound and unlimited contests.

Named Coach Of American Buffalo Bills

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Garrison "Buster" Ramsey, defensive coach of the Detroit Lions, Wednesday became the new American Football League's first coach as he was named to head the staff of the Buffalo Bills.

The appointment was announced by owner Ralph C. Wilson Jr. of Detroit.

Ramsey, a former All-American guard at William and Mary, has spent 14 seasons as a player and assistant coach in the National Football League.

Terms of his three-year contract with the Bills were not learned.

At Detroit, Ramsey said the Bills already have signed some players and "part of my job will be to get out on the road and sign some more."

All-American

Ramsey, 39, is a native of Maryville, Tenn. He was an Associated Press All-American guard on William and Mary's Southern Conference championship team in 1942.

After World War II service, Ramsey joined the Chicago Cardinals in 1946. He ended a six-year playing career when he moved to the Lions as an assistant coach in 1952. He was instrumental in directing Detroit's tough defensive unit on the championship teams of 1952, '53 and '57.

Wilson has been the most active of the AFL owners in setting up his club. Five players already are under contract and Wilson says he has agreements with several others but cannot release names until after the bowl games.

Cincinnati, Tribe Swap Big Names

CINCINNATI (AP)—The big baseball trade between Cincinnati and Cleveland, revolving around infielder Johnny Temple and pitcher Cal McIsh, did not cause the players to believe they had received early Christmas gifts.

In fact, Temple, star second baseman, lead-off man and sparkling of the Reds, was downright surprised and disappointed. He said he didn't want to be traded, then added he would do his best for Cleveland.

McIsh, who won 19 games while losing only 8 for the Indians this year, said he had hoped to remain at Cleveland. Later he said he was satisfied.

And Billy Martin, one of the bluest young men, who also came to Cincinnati in the deal, blamed Manager Joe Gordon. "So I'm out of the American League now because Gordon doesn't like me," he said.

Nothing To Say

Only Gordon Coleman, a standout minor league first baseman, had nothing to say about being sent to the Reds in the package.

The deal was one of 15 completed during the new interleague three weeks' trading period, and was made just before the deadline midnight Tuesday.

Despite the players' remarks, Gabe Paul, general manager of the Cincinnati club, and Frank Lane, the Indians general manager, said they thought the exchange strengthened their clubs for the pennant races in the National and American leagues, respectively. The Reds tied for fifth place and Cleveland finished second.

Offense V.s. Defense In Crown Clash

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A look at the final National Football League statistics released Wednesday indicates the championship battle Dec. 27 pits a potent offensive Baltimore club against a rugged New York defense.

For the second year in a row the defending champion Colts, Western Division titleholders, captured first place in total offense with 4,458 yards and in scoring with 374 points.

Thanks to the passing of quarterback Johnny Unitas and the receiving of Ray Berry, Lenny Moore, Jim Mutscheller and company, the Colts supplanted Pittsburgh for top honors in total yardage gained passing with 2,753 yards.

Led by Huff

The Giants, with big Sam Huff holding up the middle of the line, showed they were the best defensive team against rushing for the second straight year. They allowed 12 opponents a total of 1,261 yards, an average of 3.3 yards on each of 379 carries. New York also was first in total defense, giving up 2,843 yards.

Fullback Jimmy Brown hoisted the Cleveland Browns to their second straight rushing title. He picked up 1,329 of the total 2,149 yards.

Jordan Found In Good Health

BOSTON (AP)—Fight Manager Gus D'Amato was ordered Wednesday to stand trial in special sessions Feb. 8 on charge of failing to answer a subpoena—a violation of the general business law—from the attorney general's office.

The attorney general's office is one of three governmental agencies which have investigated or still are probing the promotional background of the June 26 Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight. D'Amato manages Patterson.

D'Amato lost a unanimous decision by a three-member panel on a demurser which would have set aside any information concerning an alleged crime as insufficient.

Heart Attack Killed Tony, Doctors Say

NEW YORK (AP)—A hospital autopsy has showed that Tony Canzoneri, onetime ring champion, died of a heart attack.

The former featherweight, lightweight and junior welterweight champion was found dead Thursday in his midtown hotel room.

Robinson said his idea to form the union is based on his old complaint that athletes don't receive as large a share of proceeds from athletic events as they should.

Neither Can Claim 'Ace'

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP)—A hole-in-one neither could claim left golfers Paul Anton and Bine Rolling sick, sick, sick Wednesday.

Teeing off at the 130-yard, 14th hole at Pontaluna course here, Anton drove to the green. Rolling matched the drive. But leaves on the green hid the roll of the balls. Each had used the same make ball, identical down to color marking and number.

At the green they found one ball in the cup and the other two feet short.

Claims No Pressure In Resignation

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The skeptics continued to wonder, but Coach Don Clark insisted Wednesday that no pressure was exerted in his decision to quit the lucrative football job at the University of Southern California.

Clark handed over the coaching reins Wednesday to his chief assistant, John McKay, a former star halfback, during a news conference.

The 35-year-old Clark, whose tenure at his alma mater actually ends March 1, declared he has been considering leaving the coaching ranks for several years; even, he said, before he took the boss role at Southern Cal three years ago.

Risky Professional

He admitted the profession is a risky one and added that he did not want to face the prospects of moving his family—he has seven youngsters—all over the country in future years.

Clark resigned to enter a factory clothing supply firm headed by his brother, John.

He denied specifically that the now famed McKeever incident which involved the Trojans and the University of California had anything to do with his decision.

Guard Mike McKeever was accused of deliberately injuring a California player, Steve Bates. In the uproar that followed, President Norman Topping of USC publicly apologized for the mishap but Clark defended his player and the play itself as an accident.

Clark was asked if alumnus—and possibly school-criticism of his team's defeats by UCLA and Notre Dame figured in his resignation. He said it did not.

Clark reportedly earned around $17,500. McKay will get around $15,000, it was reported.

College Grid Attendance Not Hurt By Pros, TV

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Is college football suffering from the increasing popularity of the professional game? Is television losing its impact on the fans?

If it is suffering, the annual attendance survey by the NCAA Service Bureau doesn't show it.

Neither does it prove that the colleges might not be doing better at the gate without these two kinds of competition.

The statistics, released Wednesday, show total attendance and average attendance at the home games of 623 colleges increased this season for the sixth straight year.

The total of 19,615,344—about two million each Saturday of the season—fell somewhat short of the 1949 peak total, but the average of 31,479 per team was more than 2,500 above the 1949 figure. There were 59 more football-playing colleges a decade ago.

The NCAA surveys, begun in connection with the television program, show a steady decline from 1949 through 1953. Since then there has been an equally steady rise. But the total growth rate doesn't look especially high when compared to pro football's boom.

Works Out

It works out this way. In 1949, average attendance for 682 colleges was 28,815 a team. By 1953 it had dropped to 26,993. Now it has climbed to 31,479. It works out to a 9.2 per cent increase over the previous high and 16,600, the low mark.

The low year for the colleges, 1953, was a record breaker for the pros with 2,164,585 cash customers attended the 72 National Football League regular season games. Figures for the 1959 NFL season haven't been completed, but there's every indication it was eighth straight record breaker.

Last year the total was 3,006,124, averaging 41,752 a game.

Nothing New

Nothing new came out of Wednesday's meetings.

Vincent Velella, the New York politician who holds the contract for the return Patterson-Johansson fight, has been indicted on a two-count perjury charge in New York.

Sugar Ray

PLATTSBURGH (AP)—Heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson said Wednesday he hopes to solve his title fight dilemma on a visit to New York in January.

The unbeaten Swede is signed for a title defense against Floyd Patterson in the United States and is being courted by British promoter Jack Solomons for a defense against British ruler Henry Cooper in London.

Johansson and his adviser, Swedish promoter Edwin Ahlquist, conferred with Solomons Wednesday. Solomons wants to stage the fight May 31. Johansson knocked out Cooper in the fifth round 2½ points.

Banks Sets Glove Marks

CINCINNATI (AP)—Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, who holds season records for grand slam homers and home runs by a shortstop, established two major league fielding records in 1959.

This was disclosed Wednesday with the release of the official fielding averages by the National League Service Bureau here.

Banks' mark was .985. This was two points higher than the previous record set by Eddie Miller of the Boston Braves in 1942. Banks, who played in all of his team's 154 games, at short, made only 12 errors. The former low was 14 miscues established by Phil Rizzuto of the New York Yankees in 1950 and equaled by Roy McMillan of Cincinnati in 1958.

Banks accepted 793 chances, 271 putouts and 519 assists. In 1958, Eddie made 32 errors and finished with a .960 average.

The Dodgers had the highest team fielding average, .981.

News Curb Removed At Missile Base

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The commander of the missile test center has removed restrictions on news coverage enforced 24 hours earlier.

Air Force Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates said he was satisfied a news service did not intentionally violate an agreement by pinpointing the date of a space probe.

In a telegram to Lyle Wilson, vice president of United Press International in Washington, Yates said: "I am happy to receive your assurance that in consideration of the source of UPI's information, UPI did not violate the existing agreements. May I assure you my intentions are to continue to cooperate with the press to ensure the most objective reporting to the public of our military activities."

Past Cooperation

"I sincerely appreciate the cooperation I have received in the past from all news media in this respect. I regret the current misunderstanding and plan to immediately reinstate press coverage of our military firings, trusting that procedures we have followed in the past will continue to prove satisfactory."

The general told his weekly news briefing Monday that for the time being he would not brief reporters on future military shots nor would he allow them to cover launches from the press site at the cape.

He said his action was the result of a UPI story last Saturday which said the United States would try to send a rocket to the vicinity of the planet Venus and into orbit about the sun. The Washington-dated story said the launching would be Tuesday. The shot since has been postponed for technical reasons.

Bangor Club Hears Talk On Paintings

BANGOR — Reproductions of paintings of the Madonna were discussed by Mrs. Madeline Maloney of Stroudsburg, at the meeting of the Senior Woman's Club in the club rooms at the public library building Monday.

Introduced by Mrs. E. S. Rosberry, the speaker, who has a collection of over 6,000 Madonna pictures, described the different styles of painting and the significance of symbols used in many portraits.

She observed that Raphael's Madonna is considered the best. Many paintings, she said, were the work of cloistered monks. Pastel colors indicate God's coming to man, red colors indicate man's going to God.

In the painting, she said, is a symbol of fertility. The palm branch represents peace; the lamb means sacrifice. An apple in the Madonna's hand indicates a second Eve. An apple in the child's hand represents the fall of man.

In Charge
Mrs. James Halliday, president, was in charge. Miss Olive J. Blake read the Christmas Story. Mrs. Clark Morey was received as a new member. Mrs. Burton Rader led in a candle-lighting service in which members made individual contributions to CARE.

Mrs. Glenn Grigg, chairman; Mrs. Harry Bray, Mrs. R. W. Fritzsche, Mrs. Mary Barlett, Mrs. J. E. Brackbill, Mrs. T. Gordon Ditchett, Mrs. William Lange and Mrs. Gertrude Osborne comprised the hostess group. Mrs. Bray and Mrs. Osborne poured.

At the next meeting Monday, Jan. 11, Ralph Stampone, interior decorator, will show colored slides. Mrs. Clark Hahn heads the hostess committee. A business session at 2 p.m. will precede the program.

Ruth Circle Holds Yule Program

BANGOR — A Christmas party, featuring a covered dish supper, was enjoyed by the Ruth Circle of the First Methodist Church during the meeting at the parsonage this week. There also was an exchange of gifts.

Miss Joan Parsons read the scripture. Mrs. Lois Burger conducted devotions. Mrs. Vivian Smith, secretary, and Mrs. Janet Jones, treasurer, submitted statements.

Entertainment to be presented at the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service next February was discussed. It was decided to sew quilts next month and to go Christmas caroling. Children will accompany members in the caroling.

Boxes of cookies were packed for shut-ins. Mrs. Howard Reeves and Mrs. Marjorie Capobianco served as hostesses.

PUC Okays DV Phone Rate Hikes

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Delaware Valley Telephone Co., Honesdale, N.Y., was authorized Wednesday by the Public Utility Commission to raise immediately rates for 2,259 Pennsylvania subscribers in Pike County.

The PUC action lifted suspension of an estimated $40,200 annual rate boost by the utility.

Under the new schedule, monthly local service residential rates will be increased in amounts ranging between 60 cents and $1.75, and business phone charges will be boosted in amounts ranging between $1.75 and $3.

5.6 Return

The PUC said data furnished by the firm in support of the increase showed a 5.6 per cent return on estimated plant fair value would not yield an excessive yearly net income under the new rates.

This marks the first boost by the firm since 1951. An affiliate of the General Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, the utility provides service from four central offices at Binghamton, Matamoras, Milford and Shohola.

Court Requested To Remove Ban

PITTSBURGH (AP) — City Solicitor David Stahl has asked U. S. District Court to remove its temporary restraining order halting enforcement of the 1959 Blue Law banning sale of certain items on Sundays.

The order was issued Sept. 11 by Judge John L. Miller after some 40 merchants contended the law was unconstitutional.

A hearing on Stahl's motion is expected to be scheduled later.

If you spent every minute of every day of your life counting out one dollar bills, you could not reach the amount all advertisers invested in daily newspaper advertising last year — $3,120,000,000.
